Malhotra committee Report on Insurance Sector

193. DR. SHRIKANT RAMCHANDRA JICHKAR: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government has now made up its mind on the action to be taken on the Malhotra Committee Report on the Insurance Sector reforms;

(b) if so what are the details thereof;

(c) if not what is the reasons for taking such inordinate time in making up its mind; and

(d) whether a national debate was conducted on this as promised and if so, what has been the general conclusion of the debate?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M.V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY):(a) to (d) The Malhotra Committee on Reforms in the Insurance Sector submitted its report to the Government on the 7th January, 1994 recommending various reforms required in the insurance sector. Their recommendations have been discussed with the managements and the unions of the insurance industry, consumer interest groups; Chambers of Commerce and Industry; and academics. These recommendations were also discussed in the consultative Committee of the Ministry of Finance. Broadly, in the discussions, the unions did not support the recommendations relating to private sector entry into the insurance industry, disinvestment by the Government in the existing insurance entities, and their restructuring. The managements of the insurance companies wanted to have a transition period to prepare for competition. The consumer interest groups, Chambers of Commerce and Industry and academics generally supported the Malhotra Committee recommendations. The suggestions made in these discussions will be kept in view by the Government while taking a final decision on the recommendations made by the Malhotra Committee.
